

JOIN US TO CELEBRATE

EQUALITY DAY

WITH THE SCREENING OF A NEW FILM

“CONSTITUTE !”

“Constitute !” tells, through interviews, and recollections the memorable story of the hundreds of Canadian women who came together spontaneously and convened a history-making conference in Ottawa in 1981. Their aim was to ensure that women’s rights were entrenched specifically in the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. In spite of political indifference they succeeded and we have benefited from this protection ever since.

Among the many participants in the film were: Sally Armstrong, Doris Anderson, Flora Macdonald, Michele Landsberg, Linda Palmer Nye, Simar Samar

The movie will be followed by a panel discussion, refreshments, 50/50 draw
